

Green Flag Criteria Checklist

Eco-Committee

- At least one pupil from each year group is on your Eco-Committee (year one upwards).
- Eco-Committee meets at least once every half-term.
- Pupils share responsibility with adults for running meetings and keeping a record of meetings.
- Meeting minutes are displayed on your Eco-Board.
- There is representation from parents, governors or senior management on the Eco-Committee (they do not have to attend each Committee Meeting, but should be kept up-to-date).

Environmental Review

- The current Eco-Schools Environmental Review is completed by pupils with adult supervision.
- A copy of the Environmental Review is displayed on the Eco-Board.

Action Plan

- Your Eco-Committee produces an Action Plan influenced by their Eco-Schools Environmental Review.
- Action Plan contains actions for three topics (first Green Flag) or five topics (Green Flag renewals).
- Your Action Plan contains timescales, who is responsible and how the actions will be monitored and evaluated.

- A copy of the Action Plan is displayed on your Eco-Board.

Curriculum Links

- You have gathered evidence that shows environmental issues have been covered in at least three areas of your school's curriculum. This evidence is from different year groups and subject areas.

Informing and Involving

- You have a prominent, designated and up-to-date Eco-Board that includes:
 - Eco-Committee members and corresponding year group.
 - Meeting Minutes
 - A copy of your Environmental Review
 - A copy of your Action Plan
 - Examples of Monitoring and Evaluation
 - Your Eco-Code
- Your Eco-Committee has used a variety of mediums to communicate their topic actions.
- Your whole school and its wider community has been involved in Eco-Schools work.

Monitoring and Evaluation

- Your Eco-Committee have monitored the effectiveness of their topic actions in a variety of ways including at least one way that links to the curriculum.
- Evidence of Monitoring and Evaluation for each topic action is displayed on your Eco-Board.

Eco-Code

- Eco-Code has been created by pupils.
- Eco-Code reflects the topics you have worked on in your Action Plan.
- Your Eco-Code is displayed on your Eco-Board.
- Your Eco-Code is displayed throughout the school and known and understood by the majority of pupils and staff.

