5. The nursery, school or college of the Winner will also have 5 working day to respond to initial confirmation that they will accept the £500 (five hundred pounds) donation and agree to arrange a school visit with the promoter at a date which is suitable for all parties involved. Parents/guardians of the winner will not be involved in this process.

6. The nursery, school or college has 3 weeks after notification of winning the £500 donation to notify the Promoter of which wildlife charity they would like their winning donation to be given to on their behalf. Parents/guardians of the Winners will not be allowed to make this decision.

5. You agree that the Promoter shall be entitled to reproduce, publish, exhibit, transmit and broadcast including in the media and use the Entrants first name only and nursery, school or college name to identify them in relation to publicizing the competition and you as the winner.

Prize

1. The 3 Winners schools will receive the opportunity for a visit from one of The Wombles to attend a nursery, school or college litter pick ('the Prize').

2. The Prize is subject to the availability of the Wombles on the date of the Winner's litter pick.

3. In the event the Wombles is not available on the date of the Winner's litter pick, the Promoter will, where possible, provide the Winner with available dates so that a suitable date can be arranged for the Wombles to attend the Winner's litter pick.

4. The Prize is also subject to the Winner and their parent/ guardian agreeing to participate in any press releases, photography and/or filming to celebrate the campaign. Any such press releases, photography or filming may be used by the Promoter for marketing purposes, including on social media.
