

Competition Terms and Conditions

Promoter

The competition promoters are

Good Energy Limited (company registration number 03899612) of Monkton Reach, Monkton Hill, Chippenham, SN15 1EE (the “Promoter”).

Eco-Schools England, Keep Britain Tidy. Keep Britain Tidy is a registered Charity No. 1071737. Registered as a company limited by guarantee in England & Wales No. 3496361. Registered office at Elizabeth House, The Pier, Wigan, WN3 4EX

The Competition

1. Individuals submitting a personal statement to apply as a candidate for Good Energy’s Good Future Board must be aged between 12-18, live in England and have the permission of your parent/guardian or school to take part (the “Entrant”)
2. All entries must be submitted for the competition before Friday 5th February 2021 at 16.00 (GMT). Any entries submitted after this time will not be accepted.
3. The Promoter will not accept entries which breach any laws in relation to content, include profanity or references which infringe the rights of third parties.
4. The Promoter will not accept responsibility for any entries that are late or not received due to technical conditions. Incomplete or duplicate entries will not be eligible. Proof of entry is not proof of receipt.
5. The Promoter reserves the right to reject any entries without reason or prior notice.
6. This competition is open to schools, individuals and home schoolers. School groups and individuals do not have to be or attend a registered Eco-School to take part in the competition.
7. Any entries must agree to these Terms and Conditions to be eligible for the competition.
8. By submitting your entry this means you have consent from your parent/guardian or school to take part and possibly be chosen as a candidate for Good Future Board.
9. Eco-Schools England is responsible for administering the selection of a shortlist of entrants on behalf of Good Energy and has no responsibility to individual entrants, their schools or families once the selection process is over.

Winner Selection

1. 12 shortlisted entrants (the “Shortlist”) will be selected by Eco-Schools England during the week commencing 8th February 2021.
2. In order to be on the Shortlist an Entrant must meet all the competition entry criteria above and have the consent of their parental/guardian or school to take part.
3. Eco-Schools England will then pass on anonymised applications from the 12 shortlisted entrants to the Promoter who will select the final six winners (the “Winners”).
4. Eco-Schools England shall contact the Winners to inform them that they have been selected. Eco-Schools England will attempt to contact the Winners on two occasions but if Eco-Schools England is unable to contact a Winner for any reason after two attempts then an alternative winner will be contacted. Eco-Schools England will provide the Winners with further details about participation in the Good Future Board and pass the Winner’s contact details to the Promoter, who will make contact. At this point Eco-Schools England’s participation in the competition shall cease.
5. The results of the competition are final and no correspondence will be entered into by the Promotor or Eco-Schools England.

Prize

The prize is an opportunity for the Winners to participate in Good Energy's Good Future Board (the "Prize"). The Prize is non-negotiable

General

1. By entering the competition, the Entrant's parent/guardian or school (as applicable) agree and are bound by these terms and conditions.
2. The Promoter reserves the right to amend these terms at any time without notice and to communicate the changes to entrant's parent/guardian or school by updating these terms on its website.
3. The Promoter shall not be liable for any failure to comply with its obligations where the failure is caused by something outside its reasonable control and shall be entitled to suspend or terminate the competition as a result.

Good Energy will provide further information to the Winners on their role as a youth member of the Good Future Board. These T&Cs are only in relation to the competition to submit a personal statement for shortlisting by Eco-Schools England, running from Tuesday 24th November 2020 until Friday 5th February 2021
